Jo rode on the British Young rider team at the European championships in 1982 in Germany and 1983 in Denmark.

She competed Internationally at small tour and Grand Prix Nationally. Jo has won 3 National titles and had many more placings at National championships at every level from Novice to Int 2.

Jo no longer competes but spends her time training others in clinics throughout uk and judging all over the world as a 4* International judge

Jo is involved in the training and examining of other judges in uk and has sat on several committees for British Dressage for 10 years and ran many shows for British Dressage including the regional championships for many years

Jo has developed the dvd series "Through the eye of the judge" with Stephen Clarke

Jo is now co- organiser of Somerford dressage and busy with plans to take it International from 2016